What did the judges say?

Here's proof that your country-living dream can become a reality – without breaking the bank! – Johan Spies of Pennypinchers Timbercity

These city slickers turned into formidable DIYers with the incredible transformation of their old schoolhouse! – Marian van Wyk, creative editor

This innovative couple show how going 'back to your roots' can be affordable. – Deon de Goede, DIY expert

This is the ultimate upcycle renovation. What better way to 'go green' than reinventing an existing building in need of a revamp – and with such flair! – Wicus Pretorius, editor 🏠

I developed unbelievable biceps using a belt sander on the floors. I now proudly sand while drinking a cup of tea. – Candice
